

International Women's Day speaker tour

No Sweat and NUS Women's Campaign are organising a series of meetings with Iraqi socialist feminist Houzan Mahmoud to build solidarity with the new women's, trade union and unemployed movements in Iraq and their struggles for secularism, democracy and equality.

Organisation of Women's Freedom in Iraq

Iraqi women and workers need our support!

Iraqi workers and women face attacks not only from the US-UK occupation and the US-backed Interim Government, but also from the right-wing "resistance". Around International Women's Day on March 8th, NUS Women's Campaign and No Sweat will be organising a speaker tour with Houzan Mahmoud from the Organisation of Women's Freedom in Iraq to promote financial and political solidarity.

Cambridge University - 7pm, Monday 7th March / Latimer Room, Clare College / call Jo on 01223 356 454

Sussex University - 1pm, Tuesday 8th March / Sussex University Falmer campus / call Clare on 07779 251 478

SCHOOL OF ORIENTAL AND AFRICAN STUDIES, LONDON - 7.30pm, 8th March / Khalil Lecture Theatre / call Jodi on 07863 346 179

Sheffield University - 1pm, Wednesday 9th March / call Louise on 07746 759 773

Leeds University - 6pm, 9th March / Postgraduate Lounge, Leeds University Union / call Sam on 0113 380 1242

Oxford benefit gig - 9pm, Thursday 10th March / the Jericho, Walton Street / £3.50 / call Kate on 07950 216 692

Durham University - 1.15pm, Friday 11th March / Leech Hall, St John's College / call Durham Uni People & Planet on 07989 562 541

www.nosweat.org.uk