

HARINGEY TRADES UNION COUNCIL

SAY

NO TO SADDAM HUSSEIN!
NO TO WAR!
NO TO OCCUPATION!
YES TO INTERNATIONAL
TRADE UNION SOLIDARITY!!

Behind the depressing headlines of US/UK occupation, suicide bombings and kidnappings, another story is unfolding in Iraq. Trade unions, banned by Saddam Hussein are organising, striking, winning key demands for better pay and conditions and opposing privatisation. Houzan Mahmood of the Federation of Workers Councils in Iraq has just returned from there. Come and hear her report and how we can help the newly emerging Iraqi trades union movement.

8pm, Thursday May 19th at Wood Green Labour
Club, Stuart Crescent, Wood Green, N22
Wheelchair accessible venue
